DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Khan (2001/0056395).

Khan discloses a programmable apparatus and corresponding method, and computer readable memory for internet bargaining comprising providing a pricing hint to a first computer connected to a network, a second computer connected to the network, a database in the memory of the second computer, a program in the memory of the second computer for causing the first computer to display the pricing hint (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65; p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164); program determines the pricing hint based on historical data (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65; p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164); program determines the pricing hint based on current prices (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65; p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164); program provides the pricing hint based on market value (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65; p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164); selecting an item on which to bid, invoking a bid advisor program, selecting a type of bid assistance, and determining a pricing hint based on the type of bid assistance selected (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65;

Art Unit: 3624

p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164); a server computer, a client computer, a database, a network connecting the server computer, the client computer, and the database, a bid advisor program installed on said server computer, wherein the bid advisor program causes the client computer to display the pricing hint (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65; p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164); and a web browser program installed on said client computer (p.1, 13 to p.2, 16; p.3, 63-65; p.4, 70; and p.14, 163-164).

Provisional Application Listed on PTO-892 form

If a copy of a provisional application listed on the bottom portion of the accompanying Notice of References Cited (PTO-892) form is not included with this Office action and the PTO-892 has been annotated to indicate that the copy was not readily available, it is because the copy could not be readily obtained when the Office action was mailed. Should applicant desire a copy of such a provisional application, applicant should promptly request the copy from the Office of Public Records (OPR) in accordance with 37 CFR 1.14(a)(1)(iv), paying the required fee under 37 CFR 1.19(b)(1). If a copy is ordered from OPR, the shortened statutory period for reply to this Office action will not be reset under MPEP § 710.06 unless applicant can demonstrate a substantial delay by the Office in fulfilling the order for the copy of the provisional application. Where the applicant has been notified on the PTO-892 that a copy of the provisional application is not readily available, the provision of MPEP § 707.05(a) that a copy of the cited reference will be automatically furnished without charge does not apply.
